SONOMA: Buena Vista brings 1860s to life

Historical characters from the 1860s will entertain guests at Buena Vista Winery in Sonoma on Saturday, from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m., billed as a “Living History Extravaganza.” The costumed characters will tell stories and take guests on tours of the historic stone winery and its wine caves. Current release wines will be poured, and there will be food offered from local purveyors. Musical performances will also be in the mix. General tickets are $35. Information: 800-325-2764. The winery is at 18000 Old Winery Road.

SONOMA VALLEY: Sonoma Music Festival tickets

Tickets for the Oct. 2-4 Sonoma Music Festival at the Field of Dreams in downtown Sonoma will go on sale for residents of Sonoma Valley July 15. The $47 standing room only tickets are available at the cashier’s window at Sonoma Chevrolet, 687 W. Napa Street in Sonoma, beginning 10 a.m. Residents need valid identification to show they live in the Sonoma Valley, from Kenwood south to Schellville. Information: sonomamusicfestival.com.
