DeLoach Vineyards in Sonoma County celebrates its 2010 harvest with five selections that won't require a lay-a-way payment plan to enjoy.

Its '09 Heritage Reserve Chardonnay ($11.99) is outstanding. From the first whiff you are drawn into a ripe orchard of vanilla, apples and pears laden lightly with cinnamon and nutmeg spices. This wine has a full mouth feel that would be a perfecting pairing with a Thanksgiving feast or alone with a slivered almonds and a strong Camembert.

The other white variety, '08 Chardonnay ($11.99) has more crisp acidity and essences of flowers and citrus. It is medium bodied and pairs with salads or lighter fare.

Red berries and fragrances of dried herbs and flavors of red currants showcase the '09 California Merlot at $11.99. It is smooth and begs for spicy dishes.

Pinot Noir is DeLoach's flagship wine and at $14.99 the '09 Pinot is ripe with strawberry aromas and cranberry and dark cherry taste. It will go elegantly with that Thanksgiving bird or a spicy shrimp salad.

The '09 Cabernet Sauvignon ($11.99) is ready to drink now. The dark fruit pushes to the front of the palate with a tang of plums, black pepper and balanced tannins. It is not an extremely muscular wine so rich dishes could overwhelm it in a match. So, try this Cab with blackened catfish or sweet short ribs.
