

THE HOT
LIST

100 top foods to eat, places
to visit, things to do P. 15

Sunset

LIVING IN THE WEST

January 2011

Northern California
Editor's picks

4 ways to amp up the love in your life

2 Smooch in the snow.
» See Tahoe in a whole new light on a nighttime snowshoe tour at Northstar. When the moon is full (Feb 17–18), tromp into the snowy woods for a quiet moonlit explore—holding hands encouraged. Hot chocolate, s'mores, and live music by the fire most definitely

1 Clink flutes of bubbly.
Preferably Pearls. By that, we mean Perle de Vigne, Perle

Northern California
Editor's picks

4 ways to amp up the love in your life

Boisset Taste of Terroir

1 Clink flutes of bubbly.
Preferably Pearls. By that, we mean Perle de Vigne, Perle de Nuit, and Perle d'Or, three Champagnes, or more correctly, crémants, made in the Burgundy region of France. Yes, yes, you're in Healdsburg, but instead of questioning why a newly opened tasting room, Boisset Taste of Terroir, is pouring French wines here, just cozy up at the marble-top communal table lit by a Marie Antoinette chandelier and order side-by-side Pearl flights. That's three chances to toast each other. $12 tasting; 320 Center St., Healdsburg; 707/473-9707.

—CHRISTINE CIARMELLO