Some of Napa Valley's best and brightest, Francophiles and Hospice supporters took the red carpet to Saturday's "Soirée Au Moulin Rouge" at Raymond Vineyards in St. Helena.

The event, a benefit for Napa Valley Hospice, included can-can dancers, Cirque de Soleil-styled acrobats, food from renowned local chef Michel Cornu and, of course, exquisite wines.

Napa photographer Al Francis turned into an amiable paparazzo for the event, catching many red, white- and black-decked-out guests on the red carpet, at tables and around the event.

Did he catch you?
