Napa Valley Hospice & Adult Day Services (NVHADS) hosts its seventh annual gala, "Soirée au Moulin Rouge," at 5:30 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 14, at Raymond Vineyards in St. Helena.

"Soirée au Moulin Rouge" will offer guests an evening of fine food, wine and camaraderie, with live and silent auctions. Funds raised will support the many programs offered by NVHADS throughout Napa County.

This year's gala celebrates life and love, and recognizes honorary chair Jean-Charles Boisset, proprietor of Raymond Vineyards, for his philanthropic contributions and commitment to the Napa Valley community.

"We are privileged and honored to host the soiree for the Napa Valley Hospice & Adult Day Services," said Boisset. "Their mission is vital to our community, and one we feel so closely connected with through our own lives and, of course, the storied history of the Hospices de Beaune in my home village in Burgundy, France." Former honorary chairs include Dario Sattui, Thomas Keller, Koerner Rombauer, Margrit Mondavi, Vera Trincherro Torres and Beth Nickel.

The highlight of the evening will be the 16 live auction lots, including a trip with Boisset to the 2014 Hospices de Beaune wine celebration and auction in Burgundy. The trip includes four-star accommodations and VIP tours of the Boisset family's French wineries. Other auction lots include a private dinner with Napa Valley icons Margrit Mondavi, Miljenko Grgich and Peter Mondavi Sr.; a barbecue prepared by David Long and hosted at David Arthur Vineyards with the opportunity to have a starring role on an upcoming episode of "Feast It Forward"; and a painting by famed artist Thomas Arvid.
