Buena Vista launches free historical lecture series

Jul 11, 2013 - 04:37 PM

Buena Vista Winery and its proprietor, Jean-Charles Boisset, are launching the inaugural season of the "Sonoma Valley History Lectures at Buena Vista Winery." Free lectures given by local history experts will take place on the second Saturday of every month between July and November, with all lectures taking place at 10 a.m. at the winery.

The new historical series launches this Saturday, July 13.

Local Sonoma historian and actor George Webber will present the astonishing story of Buena Vista's founder, Count Agoston Haraszthy, in what is described as "a first person theatrical performance."

The rest of the five lectures in the 2013 season will include noted local experts who will speak on the topics of "General Vallejo," "Life of the Mission Indians," "the Bear Flag Revolt," "Stone Age Sonoma" and other fascinating topics.

Lectures are about 45 minutes long and do not require a reservation.

For details, contact Webber at thecount@buonavistawinery.com.

Buena Vista Winery is at 18000 Old Winery Road in Sonoma, and is open from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily for tastings and tours.
