LOL labels

Buy wine because of a funny label and you kind of expect to forgo flavor for a few laughs. But after tasting the kookiest of the crop, we found the bottles that don't require the trade-off! BY ALLYSON DICKMAN

MAD HOUSEWIFE CABERNET
SAUVIGNON
A not-too-sweet companion for pizza night—or girls'
night. $10

FRENCHIE 2009
NAPOLEON RED
An intense, oaky
red blend that made us think
about our favorite
steak recipes. $30

MIDDLE SISTER
DRAMA QUEEN
PINOT GRIGIO
A crisp, fruity find
that got nabbed
for one editor's
seafood dinner. $12

WELL HUNG MERLOT-VERDOT
A smooth, earthy
sip that's definitely not your mother's merlot. $20

CHATEAU SMITH
2010 CABERNET
SAUVIGNON
A robust red that may induce serious
burger cravings. $20

(OOPS) CHEEKY
LITTLE WHITE
SAUVIGNON BLANC
A citrusy hit, emp
before the tasting
over. $11
