

The Reverse Wine Snob

Thumbing my nose at bottles over $20

Home

Thursday, April 3, 2014

Bouchard Aine & Fils Chardonnay Vin de Pays d'Oc 2011 - Simply Good

Smooth and tasty Chardonnay from Southern France.

100% Chardonnay from Vin de Pays d'Oc, France.

SRP of $15 and available for as low as $8. Imported by Boisset Family Estates. Sample submitted for review. See a listing of local retailers selling this wine here.

From the bottle:

"A lightly oaked, buttery Chardonnay from the South of France.

Alcohol 11 to 14%"

The 2011 Bouchard Aine & Fils Vin de Pays d'Oc Chardonnay begins with simple and pleasant aromas of apple, pear, peach and honeysuckle. In the mouth you'll find a smooth and tasty wine featuring citrus, honey and some nice light buttery and nutty notes -- just enough to add interest but not enough to overwhelm. A subtle mineral streak comes out on the crisp, satisfying finish. Simply good Chardonnay!

Also check out our review of the Bouchard Aine & Fils Pinot Noir Vin de Pays d'Oc 2011 - Light And Tasty.

See a listing of local retailers selling this wine here.

Taste Rating: 7

Cost Rating: 9

Overall Rating: 7.5

Recommended Buy

2 Ratings - Add Yours!

Don't Miss A Recommended Buy! Subscribe to our daily email to get The Reverse Wine Snob in your inbox!

Jon Thorsen

Share

791

Home

View web version

Powered by Blogger