Festival Napa Valley

Formally known as Festival del Sole, this 10-day fete featured more than 60 events celebrating music, theater, dance, wine, food, and art. Attendees enjoyed world-class performances and concerts, vintner's luncheons, winery dinners, and galas at iconic venues throughout Napa Valley. This year's festival was dedicated to Margrit Mondavi for her unwavering support of the arts. 1) Cuban musician Aldo López-Gavilán, television personality Wayne Brady; 2) Napa Supervisor Alfredo Pedroza, Napa Mayor John Dunbar; 3) Downton Abbey actress Joanne Froggatt.

Robert Mondavi Winery 50th Anniversary Celebration

The renowned winery in Oakville celebrated its 50th anniversary with live music, wine seminars, wine tastings, cooking demonstrations with local chefs, and horse-and-buggy rides through the historic To Kalon Vineyard. Guests also admired a multitiered "wine cake" made entirely of bottles from each vintage, starting with 1966. 4) Geneviève Janssens, Tim Mondavi; 5) Acclaimed chef Cindy Pawlcyn leads a cooking demonstration with winery chef Jeff Mosher; 6) Congressman Mike Thompson, winery general manager Glenn Workman.

Sonoma Wine Country Weekend

Named one of America's top three wine charity fundraisers by Wine Spectator, this event brought together Sonoma's top winemakers, winegrowers, and chefs. Highlights included a soiree at Francis Ford Coppola Winery; the Taste of Sonoma at MacMurray Estate Vineyards, with more than 200 wineries and 60 chefs; and the Sonoma Harvest Wine Auction at Chateau St. Jean, which raised a record-breaking $4.6 million for charities. 7) Jean-Charles Boisset, Bill Price, Leslie Sbrocco; 8) Dan Kosta; 9) Stephen and Lori Bush with Jean-Charles Boisset.
