drinks, this dark, sophisticated spot offers a sweet selection of sliced-to-order charcuterie. An assortment of cheese and a smart list of cocktails round out the evening.

Lost & Found Beer Garden

2040 Telegraph Ave., Oakland, 510.763.2040, lostandfound510.com

Between the cornhole boards and that East Bay sun, it's easy to spend several hours—or, hell, the entire afternoon—sucking down local saisons and snacking on fried chickpeas in this Uptown beer garden, whose sprawling, succulent-studded backyard is about twice as big and half as crowded as comparable back patios in San Francisco.

Plum Bar

2214 Broadway, Oakland, 510.444.7586, plumoakland.com

This buzzy Oakland bar, right next door to the affiliated Plum Restaurant, adds modern California twists to traditional cocktails. Exhibit A is its gin and tonic, which features flowering thyme.

Rosenblum Cellars

10 Clay St., Oakland, 510.995.4100, rosenblumcellars.com

We invite you to come celebrate wine and food with Rosenblum Cellars, located just feet from the Oakland Ferry Terminal with beautiful water views. Relax with our two tasting menus, wines by the glass, bottles, and charcuterie with cheeses—a perfect pair with your favorite wines! We also offer coffees, specialty sodas, and snacks. Let Rosenblum Cellars take your wine tasting experience to the next level.

The Trappist

460 Eighth St., Oakland, 510.238.8900, thetrappist.com

Drink like you're in Old Belgium without ever leaving Old Oakland. Funky Flemish beers taste all of the finer emerging from 28 regularly changing taps (there are also over 100 bottles from which to chose).

North Bay

Acacia Vineyard

2750 Las Amigas Rd., Napa, 707.226.9991, acaciavineyard.com

Home to world-class pinot noirs and chardonnays, Acacia has been crafting artisan wines in the heart of the Carneros region since 1979. Just an hour north of San Francisco, Acacia is slightly off the beaten path—truly wine country less traveled. We invite you to come experience our unspoiled corner of Napa Valley.

Bar Bocce

1250 Bridgeway, Sausalito, 415.331.0555, barbocce.com

Sure, Sam's may have the sunniest deck for lazily tossing back mimosas, but that's only one requirement for a good outdoor bar on the bay. Throw in a bocce court and a fire pit, and you have the holy trinity of outdoor drinking. At Sausalito's Bar Bocce, the court stands between the bar and a small sandy beach, and servers make sure that players always have a glass of the potent housemade sangria in hand. When that inevitable afternoon chill rolls in, a menu of crispy wood-fired pizza and a blazing fire pit surrounded by cushy seating await.
