

CALIFORNIA THROUGH MY LENS

Sonoma City Guide: Wine, Restaurants, History & Hiking

LAST UPDATED: WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 19, 2016 BY JOSHMC

Sonoma is the closest wine region to San Francisco and is a city and county of extensive history and beauty. The historic Sonoma Plaza sits in the heart of downtown Sonoma and is surrounded by wine tasting rooms, eateries and a state park. I have only been to the area twice, but on both occasions, I left wanting to spend more time in the unique charm it provides. Browse some of my favorite locations below so that you can make the most of your time in Sonoma.

Wineries

Of course, wineries are a main reason to come to the Sonoma Valley. While there are dozens and dozens to try a few of my personal favorites are below.

Buena Vista Winery

