Buena Vista Winery gala dinner

Gala dinner (This year: Invitation-only, but winemaker dinners run September 2-3, 2016)

The gala dinner and auction preview is the final event of Sonoma Wine Country Weekend before the next day's show-stopping Sonoma Harvest Wine Auction (see below). The private affair takes place at the historic Buena Vista Winery, California's first winery. If walls could talk, the stories would be amazing coming from the wine caves built in the 1850s! The proprietor and one of the weekend's honorary chairmen, Jean-Charles Boisset, warmly welcomes guests to his unique property for an evening of exceptional wine, food and fun. A trip to the bubble lounge (aka champagne cellar) is a must. Though the gala is invitation-only, a tasting at Buena Vista Winery is just $15.
