SAN FRANCISCO (KRON) — One of the best parts of living in the Bay Area is having the Sonoma Wine Country right in your backyard.

Whether you are on the hunt for a romantic getaway or a fun day trip, there are a number of terrific wineries that offer gourmet and cultural experiences to pair with your vino.

Yelp Community Manager Kevin Blum joined KRON 4 News Weekend on Sunday morning to discuss some of the most popular spots for this summer, according to several reviews on Yelp.

Kevin's full interview with Marty Gonzalez is located in the video above.
