Sonoma Valley People's Choice: And the 2017 winners are...

INDEX-TRIBUNE STAFF REPORT

INDEX-TRIBUNE STAFF REPORT | July 24, 2017, 5:46PM

Sonomans like to keep the excitement up – a fact they’ve proved once again during the voting period for the Index-Tribune’s third annual Sonoma Valley People’s Choice Awards. Online voting came to a close earlier this month – and it was a genuine race to the finish in several categories of our “best of” style readers poll.

Readers cast their picks in an array of categories – from food and drink to businesses to professionals and specialists, throwing the spotlight on the Valley’s finest in bakeries and boutiques, pedicures and plumbers, and a whole lot more.

Our on-staff vote-counting department tallied the results, and the full list of winners is below. Congratulations to all those who came out on top this year – and who will enjoy well-earned recognition at a Sonoma Valley People’s Choice Awards gala coming up in September. Start patronizing these honored businesses now, Sonoma – and decide if you’ll be voting for them once again in 2018...
