

sonoma magazine

7 Hot Halloween Events for Adults in Sonoma County

by SARAH STIERCH

October 27: Fantasy & Dreams in Golden Glamour, Sonoma

Celebrate the 160th anniversary of California's oldest commercial winery, Buena Vista, with a Halloween party of "fantasy, dreams and golden glamour" hosted by proprietor Jean-Charles Boisset. Known for his decadent parties, Boisset encourages sexy and over the top costumes and serves up wine, food, dancing, and eccentric performances that make his annual Halloween party one of the most famous in Wine Country. Tickets start at $90. (Courtesy photo)

Halloween isn't just for treat or tricking kids anymore! From cocktail costume parties and cult classic stage shows to cemetery tours, Wine Country residents of drinking age aren't letting the kids have all the freaky fun. Click through the gallery above to discover the scariest, strangest, and downright craziest Halloween events for grown ups this season.

