

WINES & VINES

09.06.2016

Sonoma auction raises $4.6 million

Sonoma, Calif.—The Sonoma Harvest Wine Auction raised $4.6 million for Sonoma County charities and the Fund the Future initiative to promote child literacy. Held at Chateau St. Jean Winery on Sept. 4 and sponsored by Visa and TricorBraun WinePak the event drew 650 people. The top selling lot of the day was "Two Nights of Hollywood Glamour" that included a trip to the VIP Golden Globes Party and a private film screening and was contributed by Jean-Charles Boisset and Buena Vista Winery and sold for $220,000. The top wine-only lot, which sold for $65,000 was a collection of 153 magnums of wine, and the Fund the Future Lot drew more than $2.7 million in bidding.