14. SONOMA, CALIFORNIA

Wine and winter go together like mornings and bloody marys. One of the best places to go during the season to a vineyard is Sonoma. The nature in Sonoma is beautiful in the winter. Everything is still green! Try the Heart of Sonoma Valley Wine Trail. You can visit 11 wineries with one pass only. You can actually be a winemaker for the day at the DeLoach Vineyards. And you get to keep what you produced at the end of your shift, so to speak. If you love cars, you can be a sports car driver for a day at the Audi Sportscar Experience. It's totally suitable for first timers.
