Frenchie Wines from Raymond Vineyards

"On my most recent trip up to Napa Valley, I stumbled across the wildly eclectic Raymond vineyards and instantly fell in love with everything they were doing. From fanciful technicolored chandelier-filled tasting rooms to lush gardens detailing the entire process of winemaking, this winery has it all in luxurious entertainment, including a whole line of wines dedicated to the owner's love of the French bulldog. The Frenchie wines! Its Napa's first ever dog winery. They have an outdoor playground dedicated to K9 buddies, dog-friendly tasting rooms, and a whole series of historically cheeky wines with my favorite being the Marie Antoinette Chardonnay ($27). I'll admit, I originally just wanted to taste it, because the packaging won me over, but it was actually delightfully refreshing and rich. It's a Chardonnay I'd be happy to drink any day." – NI
