

What to Drink Now: Easter Wines

Raise a glass.

BY HAYLEY HAMILTON COGILL | PUBLISHED IN FOOD & DRINK | APRIL 13, 2017 | 1:20 PM

This weekend marks the change in seasons, and refreshing wines are in order. Here are a few suggestions. (Note: Some wines sent for editorial consideration.)

Sparkling

Modern: Charmat method sparkling wine, often used for Italian sparklers and Cremant from France, keeps bubbles lively and fresh. Newly released Boisset Collection Haute Couture Rose, sold in charming 2 – bottle packages of 187ml each, ($25) expresses the “Joie de Vie” personality and great style of the French, crafted with the sparkling fermentation occurring in stainless steel tanks.