Fleming's launches 100

By Great Taste Magazine

October 16 we celebrated the launch of the new Fleming's 100®, an award-winning wine list featuring an internationally curated collection of 100 wines by the glass handpicked by National Director of Wine, Maeve Pesquera. October 21, the new selections that vary from bubbly such as JCB from Jean-Charles Boisset and Complicated Chardonnay, Sonoma County to Paraduxx Proprietary Red, Napa Valley and Educated Guess Cabernet Sauvignon, Napa Valley will be available.

Wine categories include Bubbly & Festive, Light & Refreshing, Earthy & Complex and Big & Bold.

To make room for the new crop of wines, while supplies last you may be lucky enough to receive 25% off select bottles in each location. UPDATED NEWS For a limited time, bottles of the new Fleming's 100 will be 20% off.

With the ever-evolving Fleming's 100® wine list, it's time to send off some great wines to make room for some new favorites. Celebrate our parting wines with 25% off the bottle, while supplies last.
