FOR $99 YOU CAN HAVE THE EXPERIENCE OF FLYING PRIVATE.

TRAVEL / MAY 18, 2017

Our destination was Napa, for the first ever #WineWednesday which was basically a bunch of writers and bloggers going on a glamorous adventure together on a jet to Napa. Dreams do come true!! This was the greatest Wednesday of my life. I got to fly child free which I haven't done in 4 years, and go drink in the middle of the week. Pinch me, I still can't believe it!

If you happen to take a journey to Napa via JetsuiteX the next thing you NEED to do is go to Which Winery www.whichwinery.com, which will curate your trip exactly to your needs and preferences. Their website is amazing and super user friendly. You just type your destination and head over to the filters and put in your preferences such as "has a view", "good with kids", "able to purchase wine", etc and it lists all of the wineries which will best suit your needs. I should also note it's global so you can use it no matter where you're headed!

While in Napa, Which Wineries took us on an adventure to Raymond Vineyards, which was perfect for our group of bloggers, influencers and writers. This vineyard was full of amazing photo opportunities, including the most chic rooms adorned with crystals and chandeliers, to their outside "frame" art installation with a gorgeous view of wine country. But beyond that, there were tons of experiences offered with my favorite being their "Winemaker for a Day" where you can blend and bottle your own wine and add your very own label. Oh and did I mention Raymond Vineyards is home to John Legend's exclusive LVE wine? It was divine!
