Raymond Winery “R” Collection & Raymond Reserve

I've found two Cabernet Sauvignons from an amazing winery that I hope you one day get to visit. Every step through the Raymond Winery is eye candy. Both of their Cabernet Sauvignons are incredible values for the price. Their entry level “R” Collection wine (above) is just $11 a bottle. Their Raymond Reserve Collection (below) is also phenomenal for $32 a bottle. It might be fun to buy one of each and try to taste and compare. Both are great wines for your red meats, especially grilled steak.
