WINTER ROMANCE NAPA VALLEY-STYLE

It's Cabernet Season here in the Napa Valley. That means not only full-bodied red wines, but chilly temperatures, shorter days, roaring fireplaces, maybe a little chocolate. In other words: the height of romance.

Here's our idea of a perfectly romantic day in the Napa Valley. If you're strolling more slowly with hands entwined, you could spread it out over a whole weekend (see Napa Valley's Most Romantic B&Bs).

Blend your own custom wine. Raymond Winery's Blending Room allows you to be "Winemakers for a Day" - you can learn a few tricks of the trade while blending your own red wine of Napa appellations. Then you'll take home a bottle of your own blend featuring your own custom label and can even order cases of your personally crafted wine to share throughout the year.
