

Robb Report

www.RobbReport.com

Valentine's Day Gift Guide: 23 Extraordinary Ways to Say "I Love You"

February 10, 2015

Wine and romance make a natural pairing, but for Jean-Charles Boisset, this combination assumes a particular significance. The owner of Raymond Vineyards in Napa Valley (who also owns DeLoach Vineyards and Buena Vista Winery in Sonoma County) discovered new ways to appreciate both when he traveled from his native Burgundy to expand his family's winemaking business to California and, while in France, met the woman who became his wife, Gina Gallo-Boisset. He unites these important aspects of his own life in the perfect vinous valentine: the Surrealist, a velvety blend of Cabernet Sauvignon and Petit Verdot. The gift set's ($500) red-velvet box and reusable Baccarat-crystal bottle with stopper prefigure the wine's voluptuous texture, gleaming notes, and polished crescendo. The set also includes a matching brooch as a reminder of your devotion.

(jcbwines.com) —Brett Anderson