6. John Legend

Legend reached out to Jean-Charles Boisset, owner of Raymond Vineyards located in Napa Valley, back in 2013. Together, they created a Cabernet Sauvignon called Legend Vineyard Exclusive (LVE for short) that ended up being widely acclaimed, which makes sense because literally zero things go with wine as well as John Legend music. The following year they followed up it with a Chardonnay in a “perfect harmony of passion, eloquence and Napa Valley tradition.” Give me all of you.
