THE 2015 WINE ENTHUSIAST WINE STAR AWARDS

Raising a glass to the best and brightest in the industry.

Wine, spirits and beer industry luminaries poured into Manhattan's magical New York Public Library for Wine Enthusiast's 16th annual black-tie gala. Attendees enjoyed cocktails from Belvedere Vodka and New Amsterdam, as well as select pours from the night's winners. The awards show kicked off with a performance by Grammy and Oscar award-winning singer/songwriter John Legend, who then accepted the first ever Wine & Culture award with Winemaker Jean-Charles Boisset for their collaboration, Legend Vineyard Exclusive. Those honored also included Angelo Gaja, accepting the Lifetime Achievement Award and, Michael Mondavi of Robert Mondavi Winery, W.E.'s Person of the Year. The evening's momentum got a jolt when Jean-Baptiste Lecaillon, Winemaker of the Year, invited servers to pop open magnums of Louis Roederer's 2006 Cristal.
