GIFT GUIDES

VALENTINE'S DAY

Confession: I love searching for gifts for my yearly Valentine's Day roundup. My sentimental side kicks into high gear, and when I discover the perfect present, I feel ridiculously happy! Of course, there are all sorts of relationships, from brand-new to old hat, from lovers to friends, and we all have different budgets. So I've found 25 gifts for you to peruse. They range from sentimental to practical and are grouped by price.

I hope this list will provide you with the perfect present for every one of your loved ones.

Gifts under $100

Classic Tasting With Bubbles ($99) at Boisset Wine Living

Buy your wine lover a flight of five to six bottles, which will be presented by a trained wine ambassador. There are lots of tasting options, but my favorite is the Classic Tasting With Bubbles because it offers a nice mix of wines and bubbly. The in-home tasting is scheduled at your recipient's convenience, and up to 14 guests (which will include you) can attend. All the wines are limited-production selections from the Boisset family's collection of historic wineries in Napa, Sonoma and Burgundy.
