Buena Vista Winery 2023 Vinicultural Society Ida's Selection Pinot Noir

Buena Vista was established in 1857 and named by Hungarian-born Agoston Haraszthy, the self-proclaimed “Count of Buena Vista.” He followed the early gold prospectors of 1849 and decided to plant vines and concentrate his skills on selling “purple gold” to the miners. He died in 1869 while swimming in a crocodile-infested river in Nicaragua. The count’s legend lives on due to the 2011 acquisition of the estate by French-born Jean Charles Boisset. This stunning 2023 Ida’s Selection is named for the count’s first daughter. It has elegant aromas of cherry, raspberry, and dried lavender with velvety tannins and bold flavors of ripe red berries, wild strawberry, and dried rose petals.
