Celebrate the new year with Champagne

Champagne is the quintessential complement to any memorable occasion and one that can shape and transform an experience while creating new traditions and memories along the way.

The following are ways to add glamour and elegance to at-home, year-end festivities.

Champagne-Inspired Décor

For those in the midst of planning a holiday party, use a bubbly bar as the centerpiece of the festivities.

Create a dedicated space for your bubbles, offering different champagne options and allowing guests to taste at their own leisure.

Think outside the box and don't be afraid to try something other than traditional holiday colors. Instead, use metallics like brushed gold, galvanized silver and rose gold, alongside lush holiday greens, for a more contemporary take on holiday spirit.

For bigger crowds, use large-format bottles, such as a "magnum" (two standard bottles) or a "Methuselah" (eight standard bottles), which will also save recycling space.

Champagnes to try this season include Saint Hilaire Limoux Blanc de Blanc Brut, Rotari Brut Rose, Rondel Gold Brut Cava, (about $10 each), Louis Bouillot Perle d'Aurore Rose and Cupcake Vineyards Prosecco.
