a luxury inn

JEAN-CHARLES BOISSET AND GINA GALLO-BOISSET ACQUIRE THE INK HOUSE; DEBUT LUXURY TRAVEL EXPERIENCE UNLIKE ANY OTHER IN NAPA VALLEY

Discover The Napa Valley Lifestyle Within A Luxurious Estate, Through Curated VIP Experiences And Unparalleled Entertaining In Their First Formal Collaboration

Napa Valley, CA (September 13, 2021) - Jean-Charles Boisset and Gina Gallo-Boisset are delighted to announce the acquisition of The Ink House, an enchanting historic estate in the heart of Napa Valley. Passed onto the Boisset family by the Castellucci family, who fully restored the property into a boutique luxury inn in 2017, The Ink House unveils a new style of luxury travel unlike any other in Napa Valley.

A unique collaboration between the legendary winemakers and Napa Valley residents, The Ink House will have Jean-Charles and Gina's personal touch and charm akin to a six-star hotel with first-class amenities and experiences. To allow for personalized entertaining, a formal dining room and a new underground Speakeasy featuring Jacques Garcia-inspired French lounge furniture will be added to the exquisite four-bedroom property this fall.

"The Ink House, with its rich history, exceptional location and extraordinary style, allows us to share our Napa lifestyle with our guests," says Jean-Charles Boisset, Proprietor. "We are excited to introduce our style of luxury travel with immersive experiences to discover and learn about wine and the beauty of Napa Valley. Gina and I are thrilled to curate exceptional moments for guests, connecting them to our wineries, our chefs, friends, partners and our vision of an exquisite yet authentic Napa dream."

"Jean-Charles and I love to entertain and to share the wine world with our friends and guests," adds Gina Gallo-Boisset, Proprietor. "Coming from a long lineage of winemakers I have always had a deep appreciation for quality stewardship of the land. Our family will bring this same level of care to this special historic property. We intend to continue to build upon the wonderful work the Castellucis did to restore this Napa Valley landmark, and look forward to welcoming guests to The Ink House where they can step into our world and experience the very best of Napa."

Known for harnessing the forces of all senses, Jean-Charles Boisset and Gina Gallo-Boisset have curated the ultimate Napa Valley experiences. An Estate Manager is available to arrange special and bespoke wine tastings, exquisite meals prepared by a private chef, luxurious excursions, activities and more. To learn and sip on award-winning organic and Biodynamic Boisset Collection wines, guests can choose to venture to Raymond Vineyards, with its new Highway 29 entrance directly across the way, as well as JCB, Buena Vista Winery, and DeLoach for exclusive private tastings. Similarly, guests will have unique access to the wines and experiences that Gina crafts at her family winery, including her Gallo Signature Series, Louis Martini, and William Hill wineries. Guests are also extended access to the invite-only Secret Indulgence, a one-of-a-kind private tasting experience just steps from the estate, and limited-edition wines at the Ink House with a guided educational wine tasting alongside a private sommelier. Jean-Charles' favorite artisanal cheeses and gourmet provisions from the best Oakville Grocery small-scale artisans from around Wine Country and Northern California can stock the kitchen or be taken to-go.

To explore the scenic beauty of Napa Valley guests can partake in a hot air balloon ride, cycle across the country roads, among other excursions. For those interested in learning a new craft, they can make their own charcuterie board with an award-winning cheesemaker, try their hand at chocolate truffle making with an innovative chocolatier, make their own floral arrangement, unleash their inner artist with a painting class by a local artist, have a sensory fragrance and wine experience, and more. Within the comfort of The Ink House there are private yoga sessions, guided instruction of croquet and bocce ball with an expert instructor or a leisurely game on your own, among other activities.

Guests can select from four beautifully appointed en-suite bedrooms, starting from $850 per night. For those wanting to enjoy the inn as a private Napa Valley estate experience, multi-room blocks are on offer as well.

About The Ink House: Striking the perfect balance of historic Napa Valley elegance with contemporary luxury, The Ink House is framed by an enchanting Napa Valley estate originally known as Helios Ranch. Rich with history, the land is listed on the National Register of Historic Places and beautifully sets the scene for The Ink House property itself, which was first built in 1885 by Napa Valley pioneer, Theron Ink, as a single-family home, later to become a bed and breakfast. Purchased by the Castellucci family in 2013, the property was fully restored to pay homage to the building's history but with a sophisticated, modern twist opening as a boutique luxury inn in 2018. The Boisset Collection acquired the property in 2021, carrying on the legacy offering unparalleled experiences and access to Napa Valley luxury through the eyes of Jean-Charles Boisset and Gina Gallo-Boisset.
