

Forbes

50 Reasons To Travel This Fall

Autumn sometimes gets lost in the seasonal shuffle. It doesn't tempt with beach vacations like summer or tantalize with snow-filled winter holidays, so it can be easy to discount it as the subdued time surrounding Thanksgiving.

But we've discovered places around the globe that see the span between September and December a little differently. They see champagne sunsets and cashmere trails, fishing trips and off-roading expeditions — and they want you to be a part of it all. From Miami to Munich, these are the destinations embracing the calendar not just for its foliage and football but for its festivals and outdoor fun, too.

1881 Napa Wine History Museum & Tasting Salon 1881 NAPA WINE HISTORY MUSEUM & TASTING SALON

Get a Taste of History

Pop into the newly opened 1881 Napa Wine History Museum & Tasting Salon to sip on NorCal cabernets while browsing a collection of winemaking artifacts and antiques. Continue your vino visit with a wine peel facial at Forbes Travel Guide Recommended Napa River Inn.