

Exclusive Interview with Jean-Charles Boisset

Boisset Collection Burgundian Winemakers "Tour De Tour" with Jean-Charles Boisset from Wine Channel TV on Vimeo.

Jessica Altieri on April 19, 2018 - 2:53 pm in Featured Video, Killer Pairings, What's Trending

Jessica Altieri and Jean-Charles Boisset Review Passion of Wine and "Tour de Terroir"

Join Jessica Altieri, luxury brand influencer and Boisset Collection Proprietor Jean-Charles Boisset for an exclusive interview in Chicago. Jean-Charles talks about how Boisset Collection is bringing three of its French winemakers to U.S. shores April 9-20 for "Tour de Terroir". The tour features a rare opportunity to taste the liquid jewels of Burgundy with the visionaries that crafted the wines. Jessica and Jean-Charles also discuss his new book, Passion for Wine, which he co-wrote with noted sommelier/wine educator Mamie Old. It takes a new approach that is dynamic and engaging and uses a concept called "Spectrum of Style" to deconstruct why wines taste the way they do and how people can determine their individual wine styles.

Following is press release from the Boisset Collection with details on the "Tour de Terroir":

St. Helena, CA (April 4, 2018) – Boisset Collection will bring three of its French winemakers to U.S. shores April 9-20 for "Tour de Terroir" – a multi-city opportunity for wine professionals and consumers to taste wines from Burgundy and Beaujolais to learn more from the vintners of these exceptional wines and domaines. In addition, JCB Spirits – which reflect an extension of Burgundy as the vodkas and gin are made from wine made from Pinot Noir and Chardonnay grapes from the Côte d'Or – will be available to sample during the Tour's tasting events. The Tour de Terroir will stop in Chicago on Tuesday, April 10th.

Joining Boisset Collection Proprietor Jean-Charles Boisset will be winemakers Grégory Patriat of Jean-Claude Boisset, Lucie Depuydt of J. Moreau & Fils and Florent Georget of Mommessin. The 10-city tour starts in Boston and then moves to Chicago; Austin; Orange County, Calif.; San Francisco; New Jersey; New York City; and Washington, D.C., before ending in Florida with stops in both Naples and Miami. Please click here to read more about the winemakers.

"We are so excited to bring these talented winemakers to the U.S. to share their passion for their wines and unique terroirs," said Boisset. "This is a rare opportunity to taste the liquid jewels of Burgundy with the visionaries that crafted the wines!"

In addition to featuring wines from Jean-Claude Boisset, J. Moreau & Fils and Mommessin, attendees of the Tour de Terroir will also get a chance to sample wines from three other Boisset properties: Domaine de la Vougeraie, from the Burgundian regions of Côte de Nuits and Côte de Beaune, Bouchard Aîné & Fils from Beaune and Château Pierreux from Beaujolais.

Top critics' praise for the 2016 Burgundy vintage:

"Burgundy-loving civilians, who are naturally more concerned with the price and availability of their favorite wines than with the challenges of producing them, will derive great pleasure from the precise, perfumed, suavely tannic 2016s from the outset. One caveat: following a small crop of very ripe, large-scaled wines in 2015 that are quickly disappearing from retail shelves around the world, if they made it that far in the first place, the more classic '16s won't be easy to find either." –Stephen Tanzer, Vinous

"2016 is a seriously delicious vintage. Bad news, burgundy lovers: there is a serious shortage of wine... 2016 has produced already-charming but potentially long-lived reds with a winning combination of bright, fresh, burgundian, expressive fruit with good but not insistent acidity." –Jancis Robinson, MW

###