

WINE ENTHUSIAST

Welcome Spring with These Light-Bodied Wines

The days are longer and the first signs of spring are beginning to show. You know what that means? You'll want to find easy-sipping, light-bodied wine perfect for enjoying in the sunshine. And with so many options out there, we thought we'd help by pulling together some of our favorite rosés, whites and sparklings at all different price points.

Bonpas 2017 Légende de Bonpas (Luberon); $11, 90 points. While the nose is demure, the palate of this medium-bodied white offers loads of fresh white grapefruit, peach and apricot flavors. Made from a blend of Clairette, Grenache Blanc, Ugni Blanc and Vermentino, it's fresh and fruity yet edged by veins of salt and chalk. Enjoy this brightly balanced wine now-2022. Boisset Collection. Best Buy. — A.I.
