Podcast #493 – Brian Maloney, Winemaker Buena Vista Winery, Napa/Sonoma

JUNE 20, 2022 | BY RAY FISTER | NO COMMENTS

The history of Napa Valley and Sonoma may be surprising to those that take the time to read up on the past. The colorful characters of history almost seem to be reborn in modern day winemaking. Buena Vista Winery is like a living character, with a long history of winemaking in California. Brian Maloney is Winemaker at Buena Vista and this is our second interview with him, the first being back in January of 2018 (Podcast #258). History is in this wine. And wine is passion.

You can also hear Brian on our Vino Lingo segment defining the term “Bunghole”
