

WHAT'S NEW IN SONOMA COUNTY

New “Immersive” Wine Experience Comes to Sonoma Valley

The Sonoma Valley Vintners & Growers Alliance, a previous producer of the Sonoma Wine Country Weekend, has launched a new event: Signature Sonoma Valley, which takes place April 7-8.

The event, which offers a “deep dive” into the wines, the land and the people of the Sonoma Valley region, will include the participation of vintners and winemakers from over 30 wineries, hosting parties and exclusive dinners, and providing rare access to special, limited wines.

The weekend begins on Friday, April 7, with a dinner at historic Buena Vista Winery. The oldest commercial winery in California, Buena Vista will host Signature Sonoma Valley guests for a dinner, prepared by Buena Vista Chef Victor Scargle, and a tasting of rare wines served by vintners from throughout Sonoma Valley. The evening will feature a special guest host – it has yet to be announced who it will be, but, rumor has it that Buena Vista’s storied proprietor Jean-Charles Boisset will make an appearance.

Buena Vista Winery will host the opening night dinner, for Signature Sonoma Valley, at its historic wine caves (Photo courtesy of Buena Vista Winery)