

Weekend Warrior picks: 4/8

Posted on April 8, 2016 by Sarah Stierch

The weather might be a bit moody this weekend but don't let that keep you from enjoying beautiful Spring in Sonoma Valley. Here are my weekend warrior picks for food and drink events this weekend.

Gorge on Watmaugh strawberries

Yup, the best strawberries in Sonoma Valley are available now at Watmaugh and Arnold Drive. The little fruit stand opened up this week peddling small and large baskets of strawberries to eager residents.

While you could probably do something more exciting this evening, I suggest you get your strawberry loving self to Watmaugh, cash in hand, and buy a bunch of strawberries. Next, go home, make some whipped cream (check out my technique on how to make whipped cream easily in a mason jar) and eat yourself into a strawberry coma. I've been pairing my strawberries and cream with JCB French Sparkling N°69 or Amista Vineyards Sparkling Syrah.
