

Visiting Sonoma? These 10 Wineries Should Be On Your List

These 10 wineries are perfect for a romantic weekend getaway or a day trip with friends and family.

BY DOMINIC HORNER
PUBLISHED JUL 21, 2022

Popularly known as the “Wine County of California”, Sonoma is a destination that boasts some outstanding wineries and vineyards in North America. From historic vineyards that date back more than a century to innovative small producers experimenting with different styles of winemaking, there's something for everyone. It's easy to spend hours wandering these vineyards, sampling different wines, and enjoying the beautiful scenery. The county has different sub-regions to explore, and each area offers unique expertise in winemaking. These ten wineries are perfect for a romantic weekend getaway or a day trip with friends and family.

9 / 10

Buena Vista Winery

Buena Vista is one of the oldest commercial wineries in California. It's set in a beautiful historic building, which makes it a must-visit for guests traveling to Sonoma. The wines here are excellent, and the tasting room is highly inviting. Wine lovers should try the Carneros Chardonnay and the Late Harvest Riesling. Before tasting the unique wines, guests are invited to tour the beautiful vineyard with the winery's knowledgeable wine professionals. Visitors will learn about the special areas and techniques that have made Buena Vista Winery one of the best in Sonoma.