Pine Wine: Attractive wines for $10-$20

JOHN VANKAT Pine Wine Jul 12, 2017 0

Everyone loves a bargain, so for the last month I've been busy tasting many wines costing $20 and less. Below is a shopping list of my favorites, each of which delivers quality that exceeds its cost.

All these wines are currently available in Arizona. But don't shop with your feet to find them. That can be frustrating. Simply call and order from your favorite store.

Maison Fortant 2016 Rosé "Provence, France" ($15): Very attractive with crisp balance, fine integration and lingering length. Impressive refinement for modest cost.
