

Happiest Hour Is a New Addition to Your Dallas Brunch List

Story and Photos by Chris Roclevitch, Contributor

Happiest Hour embodies everything that is Dallas: music, cocktails, views. With the addition of every Dallasite's favorite weekend pastime, it might just be the most well rounded venue in the thriving new Harwood District just south of Uptown. I got the chance to preview the new brunch items before they were released to the masses. But lucky you, they are now available on the weekends starting now. It's all up to you to throw on your big boy/girl pants and get ready to brunch hard at Happiest Hour.

Here's a sample of some of the items you will find on their brunch menu. Happiest Hour has recommended wine pairings to help you wash down your meal and — of course — get your turned up for the rest of the weekend!

Sugar Rush Hot Cakes: A stack of fluffy ricotta pancakes drizzled with blueberry apricot compote, topped with peanut butter and Nutella pebbles and finished off with a fine dusting of powdered sugar. Recommended wine pairing: Fortant Rosé.
