

21 Wines for the Year of the Dog - Chinese New Year wine recommendations

From cheerful everyday fizz to intense fruity reds, or some fascinating new varietals to try - find 21 characterful wines recommended by judges from Decanter Asia Wine Awards for your festive gatherings.

Frenchie, Marie Antoinette Chardonnay, North Coast, USA 2013

Recommended by
Decanter China

Country: USA
Region: North Coast
Grape(s): Chardonnay, Colombard
Producer: Frenchie
Alc: 14.5%
Distributor in China: Justgrapes
Price range: ¥598

Recommended by: Denis Lin (Wine Educator, CC Culture Communication Shanghai)

A timely discovery in California—a unique, dog-themed label perfect for the Year of the Dog.

Chardonnay is its main grape variety, with a small amount of Colombard. It has a rich, creamy and full flavour profile typical of the North Coast. It's a versatile wine that can match nicely with a huge variety of Chinese new year dishes.