A VIRTUAL TOUR OF YOUNTVILLE

Need an escape to the Napa Valley?

If you're feeling restless in your "staycation," the town of Yountville in the Napa Valley has a gift you'll appreciate. The town has created a virtual vacation of videos featuring all of the classic wine country activities.

Eat, Drink & Be Merry

The one thing Yountville hasn't figured out how to provide is the smells and flavors of their most famous products. BUT the website offers you a recipe from Protea restaurant. There's also information on virtual tastings and how to join a daily virtual happy hour with one of Yountville's most colorful residents, Jean Charles Boisset.
