

Naples Daily News

PART OF THE USA TODAY NETWORK

How much did each 2020 Naples Winter Wine Festival auction lot go for?

Sixty-one lots will be auctioned off to invited guests at the Naples Winter Wine Festival on Saturday at The Ritz-Carlton Golf Resort in North Naples. There is also an online auction.

Proceeds benefit services for children of low-income families in Collier County through the Naples Children & Education Foundation.

Here are this year's Naples Winter Wine Festival live auction lots and what they went for:

Lot 50: Tantalize Your Senses with Jean-Charles Boisset

Two fun-loving couples join Jean-Charles Boisset for the highly anticipated Auction Napa Valley and a 5-night stay in Napa Valley. The couples' weekend passes provide exclusive access to intimate dinners with winemakers, the barrel tasting and auction at Jean-Charles Boisset's Raymond Vineyards and, of course, the epic live auction and A-List entertainment. Join Boisset's winemaker, Stephanie Putnam, to learn how to blend your very own wine, and enjoy a personal video message from singer/songwriter John Legend, who with Jean-Charles perfected the LVE collection of wines. Includes a $500 credit at Senses by JCB (one for each couple) and 24 750ml bottles from JCB's Alchemy of the Senses Wine collection. Firm dates: June 2-7. Sold for: $120,000