

A Treasury of Champagne Brings Happiness in Orlando

Dec 28, 2016 | 4:12 pm By PrimlaniKitchen

An importer's brunch at a French brasserie showcases bubbles in all their glory

When Breakthru Beverage, a leading North American distributor of top luxury and premium wine, spirits, and beer brands, decided to showcase its sparkling portfolio over brunch at Orlando's only true French brasserie, DoveCote, we cleared our calendars.

These were the Champagnes (plus one non-Champagne sparkling wine) that accompanied our brunch:

JCB No. 21 Crémant de Bourgogne NCV ($19).

The new line of sparkling wine from Boisset Collections is known by a number. No. 21 is a brut blend of chardonnay and pinot noir that honors company president Jean-Charles Boisset with the holy grail of wines, burgundy — 21 being the French government's number for the Côte-d'Or department. Fun, lively, and zingy, this sparkler is sure to put you in the mood, especially considering its wallet-friendly price tag.