If you're in the market to stock up your wine collection this summer, check out your favorite celebrities' vino creations. Singers, actors and producers alike prove that fame and wine making aren't mutually exclusive.

John Legend's Legend Vineyard Exclusive

In collaboration with Raymond Vineyards in Napa Valley, John Legend launched the Legend Vineyard Exclusive Collection back in 2015—a dream he'd had for quite some time. Inspired by true love, Legend's wine explores harmony, passion and soul. His collection includes a variety of rosés, chardonnays, red blends and cabernet each with unique, yet classic flavoring.
