

HAVE YOU TRIED CIDER'S COUSIN? HERE ARE 6 AWESOME ICE CIDER'S TO GET YOU STARTED!

DEBORAH GROSSMAN

Neige Premier cidre de glace

The darling of Montréal restaurateurs, Neige was the first commercially produced ice cider. Launching Neige after a career as a film producer (think documentaries with fellow Québécoise Céline Dion), owner François Pouliot helped perfect the method to concentrate apple juice naturally in the cold. Amber colored, Neige Premier is a rich ice cider that is very well balanced between sweet and tart. The full-bodied wine has the structure and versatility to serve as an apéritif with spicy or salty appetizers, as a complement to foie gras or game, as a dessert wine, or as a nightcap.
