

7 Wine Gifts Dad Will Love for Father's Day

Every Father's Day, Dads across America are surprised with hit-or-miss gifts. Listen: Dad doesn't need any more cologne and if you give him a soap-on-a-rope one more time, he will cry. Longtime dads—you're nodding in agreement. New dads—you're about to figure it all out.

Winemaker for a Day (at Home)

Vintner Jean-Charles Boisset has, perhaps unwittingly, created the perfect gift for any of those DIY dads out there. First, get him the Winemaker for a Day experience from Raymond Vineyards, which includes four 750ml bottles of Raymond wines for blending, graduated cylinders, pipettes, and an instruction booklet and blending worksheet. Then, book him an appointment to blend with someone via video conferencing. Lastly, after he's emerged from his triumphant session with his final blend, jot it down, and order six bottles to surprise him with his custom blend, in a custom-labeled bottle. It is the Father's Day gift that keeps on giving a few weeks after Father's Day, when the wine arrives at your doorstep. $200 at raymondvineyards.com
