

All-American Bargain Wines

From the Critics Challenge gold and platinum winners I've selected 20 all-American value wines priced below $20. They will serve you well on the Fourth and won't bust the budget. The following are my holiday picks in alphabetical order.

Raymond 2016 Chardonnay, 'R Collection,' California ($14.99) — Raymond has always made some of the most well-balanced, drinkable chardonnay in the Napa Valley. Nothing's changed on that count.
