

Get Your Romance On With John Legend's Wine Collection

 ELLE BREEZY  FRI, NOV 06, 2015

When you have a hot date, you put on some John Legend tunes to set the mood. Now you can step up the romantic ante by incorporating some spirits by Mr. Legend, too!

The singer is expanding his market past music and stepping into the vino business. Legend has partnered with Jean-Charles Boisset and Raymond Vineyards to create Legend Vineyard Exclusive or LVE.

According to the singer, the wine is "inspired by true love." He explains, "As with my music, I searched for the right collaborator, a vineyard whose pursuit of the perfect blend and standards of excellence equaled my own," Legend said in a press release. "With roots deep in the Napa Valley and award-winning wines known for beautiful balance, finesse and power, working with Jean-Charles and Raymond Vineyards was the perfect union."

The soon-to-be-dad describes the flavor of the two items in the collection (so far) as "seductive, rich, and complex." The pricier option in the line is the Cabernet Sauvignon, which goes for $85.00, and then the Napa Valley Chardonnay, which is priced at $45.00 per bottle.
