

the drink nation

John Legend is Now Making His Own Wine With Napa's Raymond Vineyards

by The Drink Nation on Jun 26, 2018 in Culture

Chrissy Teigen must be thrilled, because her husband, award-winning singer-songwriter John Legend is partnering with Raymond Vineyards for his line of luxury wines, LVE Wines (which stands for Legend Vineyard Exclusives).

Napa's own Raymond Vineyards was the perfect fit for Legend, a long time wine enthusiast who wanted to find a high-quality vineyard with deep roots in wine country. Currently, the collection includes a Chardonnay, a red blend, a Cabernet Sauvignon, and the newest addition, a Cotes de Provence Rose.

You can order each wine individually, with prices ranging from $25 to to $85 per bottle, but for a 20% discount and delivery 4 times a year, you can also become a Wine Club member, which will run you about $140 per shipment. However, if you've always wanted to drink like John Legend and Chrissy Teigen, now's your chance.

Photo via Raymond Vineyards on Facebook

