

The North Bay Business Journal Names Boisset Collection Among the ‘Best Places to Work’ Awardees for the Second Year in a Row

ST. HELENA, CA (October 1, 2015) – Boisset Collection is named as one of the Best Places to Work in the North Bay by the North Bay Business Journal for the second year in a row. Boisset Collection was recognized at an awards reception held on Wednesday, September 30th and will also be featured in a special edition of the publication.

Boisset Collection was selected for the award based on the results of an anonymous employee survey taken in June following Boisset’s nomination for the award earlier that month. The North Bay Business Journal editorial staff also reviewed each of the worker comments and company applications that were submitted through the employee survey.

Speaking of the achievement, Proprietor Jean-Charles Boisset said, “We are thrilled to be receiving this award once again for the second year in a row. We owe a huge thank you to the entire Boisset Collection team for their incredible and impactful contribution each and every day. This award is evidence that when passion, love and skills come together, one can expect a masterpiece! This award is a tribute and salute to each member of our Boisset Collection family for coming together to create wonderful experiences that can be enjoyed by all of us and our guests!”

Also speaking of the North Bay Business Journal Awards, Publisher Brad Bollinger says, “We are over-the-top thrilled with this year’s recipients. Each covers a broad range of industries and range from small companies to the region’s largest technology company. This program started out humbly in 2006 with 24 winners and here we are today with more than 100. And once again, it’s not because we made it easier. These winners rose to the challenge with an average employee satisfaction score that was higher than last year.”
